

North Shore Community Association

Information and Services for Newcomers

The NSCA serves and represents English-speaking communities across the region and can help you make the beautiful North Shore home.

Who we are

For over twenty years, the NSCA has worked for all North-Shore English speakers, regardless of where they live or where they're from. We advocate for English-speaking communities, we collaborate with partners, and we deliver a range of services.

The NSCA represents English speakers from Tadoussac to Natashquan and north to Fermont and Schefferville. The NSCA operates across the entire region, and has offices in Baie-Comeau and Sept-Îles.

What we do

- Comprehensive information on education, childcare, health, employment, culture...
- Health information in English: health passports, documentation, webinars
- Activities and support for seniors
- Literacy and early-childhood programs
- Heritage and tourism exhibits and projects
- Job bank
- Intergenerational, family, and social events
- Volunteer opportunities

Make yourself at home

The North Shore is a beautiful, safe, and vibrant place to call home. With a solid industrial sector, professional opportunities in a range of fields, good educational institutions, affordable cost of living, and comprehensive services, Québec's second-largest region has it all—including a diverse and dynamic English-speaking community.

If you are looking for information to make your move to the North Shore go smoothly, join the NSCA. Membership is free, and our community has access to newsletters and information, help with everything from health to employment and education, and social, cultural, and intergenerational activities. We have an active social-media presence, and a website where you can find out more about our history and current projects.

Drop to pick up your free welcome kit for newcomers and find out why there's no place like the North Shore.
